Airshow: A Year in the Life of the World's Largest Military Airshow Graham Hurley

This is a unique insider's account of how the world's best combat aircraft, best pilots, international big business, and 200,000 people are brought together for the world's biggest military airshow. Graham Hurley has been responsible for choreographing and coordinating the air displays that are the centrepiece of the event, including a simultaneous fly-past of aircraft from the 80-year history of the Royal Air Force, and an aerobatic display by the Red Arrows.
