Forgiveness: Making Space for Grace Nan Brown Self

Unforgiveness is a prison. It traps you in the past, making it impossible to truly move forward until you've forgiven those who have hurt you, and have lain the burden of your unforgiveness down at the foot of the cross. Forgiving, however, can require immense strength. Join Nan Self on a spiritual journey in Forgiveness: Making Space for Grace as she teaches you how to let go of the past, heal your wounds, and grant the grace of forgiveness to others and to yourself. Drawing on her experiences as a counselor, Bible teacher, and Christian, Self compassionately illustrates how to live a life of forgiveness, the way Jesus asks of us, and the awesome freedom that comes with it. Reflective questions, prayers, and worksheets personalize your journey and give you the tools you need to practically apply Self's teachings to your own life. Forgiveness is a gift. Learn to grant it to yourself, to God, and to the people in your life, and break free of the prison that binds you.
