Writings on the Church and Baptism (Library of Radical Christian Discipleship) Thomas Campbell This volume contains three essays by Thomas Campbell -- all of which originally appeared in THE MILLENIAL HARBINGER -- on baptism and the Church. The essays are entitled: "Baptism," "Church Edification" and "Christian Character and Privilege". This is the first volume released in Doulos Christou Press's Library of Radical Christian Discipleship, a collection of works by/about movements in church history that were deeply rooted (the English word radical comes from the Latin radix, meaning root) in their commitment to following the self-denying example of Jesus and the early church in embodying the Gospel as contrast communities in the midst of a world held hostage by sin and death.
