Final Down Kandace Campbell

Madison Marx is the love of Donte's life and the death of his mental stability. Tormented by countless nights of cheating, Madison selfishly gives into the most reckless womanizing player on the team, MJ Braxton, Donte's equally talented and celebrated teammate. But when Madison informs Donte she's expecting, he's ecstatic to become a first time dad though no one else shares in his joy, including MJ, who urges her to come clean about their relationship and the possible paternity of the baby. In a league where winning and loyalty is driven by power, money, and scandal, Donte's coaching staff will stop at nothing to keep Donte's mind off Madison and on the gridiron, even if that means hiring a temptress to divert his attention. But one last visit from MJ and a threat to expose their indiscretions, pressures Madison into revealing that Donte may not be the father of their son and sends him into a whirlwind of emotions, fury and revenge.
