Grow, It Did, Grow Kevin McCauley

"A plant appeared that nobody knew was growing in the field with the green grass too. So the sun came out to help the plant grow, and grow, it did, grow, it did, grow, it did, grow." This is just one of the many memorable rhymes in this story about a lonely land, that transforms itself in to a beautiful field of flowers, buzzing with life. The wonderful illustrations of happy bees, lady bugs, flowers, and the many elements of nature, will bring a child back to this educational and entertaining book, time and time again.

*The paperback edition of this book has bonus material! The bonus includes "Unbeelievably Fun Facts", and the poem, "Thank the Bees, if You Please".
