In a world full of 'normal' people, it's easy to see transgenders, transvestites and homosexuals as something 'abnormal', so here's a coloring book to introduce you and your friends to some Trannies (Transgenders), TVs (transvestites) and just plain entertainers (both homosexual and straight) who have leveraged or showcased their special talents for the benefit of thousands! In these pages you have a chance to add color to some rather colorful people in their own right, namely, the entertainers from Simon Cabaret, in South Pattaya, Thailand. Knowing they were on the fringes of 'acceptable' society (both Thai and international) they chose to amplify and STRUT their abilities as ENTERTAINERS, across stages surrounded by tourists, families and paying customers who wanted to see a good, clean show. Much like a 'Liberace from Thailand', these people's sex lives are none of my business, and certainly not discussed, examined or displayed here, but that some of them underwent surgical 'adjustments' both painful and time-consuming WAS on display, loud and proud! With your colored pencils at the ready, you can color some of the costumed, colorful dancers and lip-synch stars who graced the stage at Simon Cabaret. Knowing that some of the head-dresses and costumes were Rio de Janeiro-Mardi Gras colored will give you quite a bit of coloring leeway as you explore the possibilities here! In addition to the anatomically accurate and elegantly-designed drawings, there are accompanying 'small stories' that give you some real 'behind the scenes', 'over my shoulder glimpses' and 'honest skinny' on the lives of people who, after all, are simply humans like thee and me... So pick up a couple volumes for yourself and a couple for your friends (or those loud-mouthed enemies) and start enjoying YOUR 'Walk On the Wild Side', because these are your imaginative, creative ticket to another universe of, well, trannies and TVs and entertainers!
