In the grand tradition of Stays & Gloves and Gynecocracy comes a wonderfully subversive tale of cross-dressing and female domination.

When well-bred young gentleman Charles takes liberties with his private tutor, his rich family is intent on relocating him to a private centre where two strict Mistress will school using all manner of shame-enducing chastisements. Through enforced tight-lacing and application of high heels, rod, and birch, our wayward protagonist awakens to a level of sensuality and sexual liberation previously unknown.

Pseudonymously written by M. Le Compte Du Bouleau (Stanislas de Rhodes, the author of the licentious masterpiece The Autobiography of a Flea also available from Locus Elm Press), this gem of Victorian flagellatory erotica is a must for those interested in discipline, humiliation, and the inevitable ecstasies that flow therefrom.
