"Whether they're half-hatched concepts or fully formulated ideas, these imaginative musings-the work of a man who made an impossible world seem completely plausible-show history in the making."-Booklist

This delightful collection of Henson's early drawings, virtually none of which had been published before the original Abrams edition, serves as a map to the boundless imagination of the artist whose characters have educated and enraptured children-and adults-for generations. Filled with creatures of all sorts, these early posters, storyboards, and set and puppet designs celebrate the Muppet creator's unique genius and wild sense of humor.
