Small Town Wilds Sarah A. MacDonald

Small Town Wilds is inspired by the Canadian wilderness that surrounds small towns, intertwining the natural world with the human. Sarah A. MacDonald manages to not only capture the fierce and savage side of the Canadian wilds, but also the delicate and enchanting. She takes the reader on a journey through the Canadian wilderness; beginning with a pure portrayal of the natural world she moves us towards the savagery of nature and of man, finally leaving us with a nostalgic tone of a wildness that is home.
