Travis Daniels isn't big on home maintenance. Being a single father and an attorney doesn't leave him any time for dating, let alone basics like keeping up with the house and yard. When his neighbor, Juan, hires a landscaper, Travis decides to do the same, not realizing Juan has an ulterior motive for recommending his friend Joseph.

Besides being a landscaper, Joseph is a member of the South Jersey Gay Men's Choir, and his beautiful singing enraptures both Travis and his baby daughter Sophie.

With the holidays approaching Travis has to handle a difficult case at work, his responsibilities as a dad, the sprucing up of his yard and an impending visit from his meddling parents. When a minor crisis threatens this delicate balance he's desperate enough to ask his attractive new landscaper for a big favor.

This 27,000 word standalone novella is for readers 18+.

Look for Bold Moves and When Hearts Collide, books one and two of the South Jersey Gay Men's Choir series. The stories do not have to be read in order.
