Life's Transitions: Experiences in Seasons of Change testify of God's sincere love by using poetry and narrative expressions to mimic seasonal descriptions. Saint John 3:16 KJV tells us, "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." No greater love exists. I celebrate spiritual growth and highlight God's abiding grace and mercy that facilitates heart, mind, and attitude changes. It has been my experience that decisions and consequences reveal the need for radical change to apprehend healthy relations. Roget's Thesaurus of Words for Writers defines change as: "transformation; to cause to become different." God's inexhaustible love via Jesus our creative transforming agent is the radical different between life and death. We cannot experience this spiritually radical different outside of His sacrificial gift that ultimately transfer souls from death to life. Time marooned in ungodliness could forfeit fruition of God's provisions. We did not deserve His provisions, but for His grace. It is unfortunate to refuse the powerful forgiveness of Almighty God. Saint John 3:17 KJV, "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved." His intentional plan is our opportunity to have everlasting life. And we can have an eternal focus no matter the season we experience. I think of abundance as grace and mercy overruling the intentions of the enemy as revealed in Saint John 10:10 KJV, "The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly." In summary, this book is about understanding to seek and embrace God's plan. His grace abounds no matter life's experiences. (Romans 5:20-21)"
