Savage State Joshua Wayner

An ambitious book collector with a sense of destiny. An overzealous teen with a hideous haircut. A kind and charitable mother of five. The handsome love interest. All the makings of a typical and forgettable romantic drama, which this story is certainly not. That is, unless, your average love story includes conquest and the horrors that follow it. Savage State is narrated by the intrepid not-so-young Olivia Zdanowicz as she plots and schemes her way to the very pinnacle of society in post-apocalyptic Michigan. Her motivations are pure and selfish, and she's no damsel in distress. Some poor fool made the mistake of wronging her a long time back and she never forgave the debt she felt she was owed. Every resident of her world would end up paying the price of her limitless ambition and ceaseless greed, including those dearest to her.
