The British Press headlines had all asked the same question; is the radical and free-thinking author, James Brennan, trying to start a revolution?

Roy Lindermann's, MP for a ruling Liberal Party in crisis, is left a Top Secret folder by his murdered friend Dustin Hislop. Investigating the folder's contents, he begins to unravel the story of James Brennan, writer, philosopher and 21st Century prophet, whom some call a Messiah and whom the terrified Government put on trial for Treason in this mind-stretching spooks thriller.

Now Brennan has been under house arrest for years, his only communication with the outside world a soundless, live broadcast on TV every night from captivity. Now the transmissions have suddenly stopped. Fearing a conspiracy, Lindermann aims to find out if James is still alive.

As his investigation deepens, Roy becomes ensnared in a hidden world of intelligence, counter-intelligence, murder and deceit, which goes right to the top of Government.

This enthralling and thought-provoking thriller, set in the world of seedy London politics, has a subtle twist which will not fail to make even the most jaded of political thriller fans smile.

Fans of The Shawshank Redemption or One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest will enjoy this philosophical thriller.

"This book heralds a new genre; the philosophical thriller!"
