In My Prayers with My Legs Wide Open - The Curse is the second book in the In My Prayers trilogy. In part one of the series, main character Jasmine James, aka JJ, cheating catches up with her when she surrenders to becoming emotionally involved with Reggie aka Mr. Dress Shop. When JJ's world of betrayal and adultery destroys those around her, she turns to the Lord for redemption. But will she stay on the path? In this story, to the outside world JJ continues to live the good life. She's raising her dead husband's children, serving as CEO of his company and pregnant by the man of every woman's dreams. But the world according to JJ is still a race to out run ominous family secrets that threaten to spoil it all for her. Continually living by her emotions, JJ allows them to make decisions for her instead of consulting with her 'right mind'. Through thought provoking characters and situations we will explore whether or not JJ truly faces a family curse of sexual immorality.
