Latvia possesses the largest and most cosmopolitan of the three Baltic capitals and all visitors to Riga will find their interests well-catered for in this guide - from museums, art nouveau buildings and opera to casinos, bars and jazz clubs. For visitors touring the peaceful Latvian countryside a host of options is covered: long sandy beaches at Jurmala, Gauja National park and quaint provincial villages all merit a visit and are easily discovered with the Bradt guide. Latvia's fascinating heritage of folklore, customs, language, cuisine and national costume have also been investigated along with a thorough overview of the country's history of invasion and revolution which has given rise to many interesting landmark features such as the Freedom Monument and Powder Tower in Riga.
