Sinister Legends

Kris Guidio

Sinister Legends Kris Guidio

Aesthetically Kris Guidio is hard core. He comes from the same source as the great Irish artist Harry Clarke, with whom he shares a taste for the sinister, the beautiful and the bizarre. The vision is dark, but the touch is light - delicate and sensitive. Kris Guidio is the first artist to use rock 'n' roll to fuel his narrative muse.

Individual artists have used the form before him in comic strip, but none with such unrelenting obsessiveness. He is also the first artist to have created a visual ambience for a particular rock group. His marriage of The Cramps to the medium was inspired, and in creating it he found for himself the perfect vehicle for his talent. Sinister Legends is his long overdue debut book - the perfect blend of fantasy, rock 'n' roll and black-and-white art. Rarely has rock caricature been so intelligently treated.
