Strange (Volume 1) Fredrick James

Sebastian has feelings he cannot reveal, while Mashine, his roommate, has a secret she cannot hide. As they both search for comfort--Sebastian in a possibly-deluded quest for love; Mashine in the company of her unconventional friends, harboring the same impossible secret she is--they are ultimately forced to protect themselves from the same threat: the people who know what Mashine is, who want to punish her for it. People who might be something even worse, who have had a grip on the minds and lives of humanity for Centuries, but who have finally found a group of people not just able to see through their veil, but more than willing to tear it apart.
