Dwight Lyman Moody (D.L. Moody) (Born February 5, 183 – Died December 22, 1899) was one of the most prolific and influential American evangelists of the 19th century. He held evangelistic crusades in the United States and Great Britain, drawing crowds of up to 30,000 people. This book is the third in a series of books by Great Ministers of the past. This series is called: LIGHTHOUSE CHRISTIAN CLASSICS, and is published by Lighthouse International Ministries. It is estimated that Moody won a million souls, founded three Christian schools, launched a Christian publishing business, established a Christian conference center, and inspired thousands of preachers to win souls and conduct revival services all being accomplished in a 40-year period. He became known as the “Prince of Evangelists”. “There can be no need for us to commend the living, blazing speech of our brother Moody. Who can equal him in natural simplicity all aglow with holy passion?”—Charles Spurgeon In this book, Mr. Moody answers many questions about Heaven. Where is Heaven? What about the inhabitants of Heaven? How do we get to Heaven? Mr Moody explains the certainty of God’s promise of life beyond the grave, and the rewards that are in store for those who faithfully serve God. All of this wonderful information is gleaned from the Sacred Scriptures.
