However you see yourself in the British Virgin Islands, sailing up the Sir Francis Drake Channel from Tortola to Virgin Gorda, reveling in the island protected waters and fresh trade winds; relaxing on a quintessential white sand beach fringed with palm trees or snorkeling over living coral reefs; you'll collect images that will stay with you a lifetime. So enjoy these images of a collection of small islands that live in a vast blue sea, produced by a talented photographer that has lived and worked in the BVI for many years.
