Woman In The Bible/ P.d.l. (Paternoster Digital Library) Mary Evans

What is the role of women in the county of the church? This is a question that has received considerable attention, particularly in recent years. The debate is often conducted without careful reference to the Scriptures and its teaching. This book seeks to redress the balance and establish how far any differences between male and female roles and functions in the Bible are related to theological presuppositions and principles.
