Randall Morgan, youngest son of one of Seattle's wealthiest families, rejected his family's money to live free of their control and pursue his career as a photographer. To make ends meet, Randall does erotic photography and massage a secret he keeps from his family so he can remain a part of his young niece's life. But the price of that relationship is high, and Randall is once more slipping under his family's thumb.

Noah Carroll is the spokesperson for the Seattle Humane Society, and the city holds a special place in his heart. When fate intervenes during a pet adoption, Noah finds himself face-to-face with his first love Randall.

While Noah and Randall are not the teenagers they once were, the flame of a first kiss long ago draws them together. Their romance is beginning to grow, but someone is out to destroy Randall and expose all he keeps hidden.

When secrets and rumors thrust Randall into the public eye, his relationship with Noah isn't the only thing that comes under threat."
