All the important characters and issues are covered - from the early church to the present day. What made people tick; why they thought what they did and why it matters to the church are explained in this easy to read and stimulating book. An innovative page layout combines with a snappy text and illustrations to convey a wealth of valuable materiel that will appeal to and benefit even the most sceptical reader. Helpful sections explain difficult topics; a timeline explains how theology ties in with history and an annotated bibliography and a basic glossary of theological terms offer additional help.
