Has the absence of his touch ever left you breathless?

Alyanna Donaldson, the exceptionally talented daughter of an influential publishing mogul is about to find out. As an independently wealthy architectural engineer her life was set in stone until Nick Joseph came along. From their very first meeting, his touch sent chills down her spine...and she loved every second of it. Initially unaware that their relationship would send her racing into unfamiliar territory, Alyanna quickly surrenders her inhibitions and eventually her heart.

Nick soon discovers that Alyanna is stronger than he'd given her credit. She proved to be just as determined as he to secure their relationship.

Nick Joseph, a devastatingly handsome European God walked into Alyanna life and instantly attracted to Ali's grace and sensual nature. Hopelessly shielding her from his life altering secret, his true identity, Nick finds himself caught between his sense of duty and his unwavering commitment to her. Together they battle for what neither is willing to relinquish and what their bodies cry out for....each other.

Void of meaningless bickering and ego-driven power struggles, their saga exemplifies how adults should conduct themselves in a relationship. Their love story is a tale of unquenchable desire, genuine affection and absolute devotion where race goes unnoticed.

You are guaranteed to laugh, cry and beg for more.
