Irish detective Rupert Dunne lives a divided existence between a big city career in Dublin and lesser policing matter at home in County Cork. Now estranged from his English wife and at a personal impasse, he finds himself contemplating the possibilities of early retirement. However the usually peaceful countryside of Cork has other things in store for him. The first in a series of murder mysteries set in current day Ireland. This book introduces detective Rupert Dunne, his assistant Murphy, and the people and scenery of West Cork.
