European Private Law - Current Status and Perspectives

This collection makes a highly valuable contribution to the field of European private law, which is, last but not least, very much influenced by the presentation of the Draft Common Frame of Reference, published in October 2009. The book focuses on the current status and perspective of European private law in the areas of contract law, tort law and personal rights, unfair commercial practices, unfair competition law, property law, international private law, company law, and optional instruments.
