Landon and Reagan are broken up now, and all they both want is to move on. But, then the boys realize something: They still need money. They put together one last job while Landon comes face to face with his past crimes and has to face the consequences. Despite Reagan's warnings, they go through with the job, and it just might be someone's last job ever. Who will make it out safely? Who will make it out heartbroken? Who will make it out alive?
